Subject: Skype during Book Week

Hi -----

I'm looking for a wonderful author to be involved in a half hour Skype session on the Wednesday of Book Week. I have done this before with-----and it was fabulous.

It would just be from 1.00-1.30 pm on Wednesday ---- August. You could just log in wherever you are and we will see you on Skype. I'll have a group of boys in my library and we'll just ask you questions. It will really be an interview.

What do you think? I'm sure you'll be busy in Book Week, but maybe you can spare 1/2 hour.

Please let me know as we'd love to have you.

Kind regards

-----
